UWorld Accessibility Statement (3/1/2021)

Accessibility

UWorld, LLC is committed to ensuring that we provide access to our electronic and information technologies, learning platform, and content made available through the use of our online applications for users with disabilities. We make reasonable efforts to follow the guidelines put forth by the World Wide Web Consortium's (W3C) Web Content Accessibility Guidelines 2.0 (Level AA) in accordance with section 508 of the Americans with Disabilities Act in order to provide accessible products and user experiences for all users.

In order to allow for the use of browser-based accessibility accommodations within a UWorld-supported browser, we utilize scripting languages, including JavaScript, in our online applications as well as device-independent event handlers.

We have taken steps to make our product reasonably accessible, including adjustable font sizes and colors, background brightness and contrast settings, and ongoing improvements to offer voiceovers and closed captions for any video content. We test with popular browsers and eReader services but cannot cover all or custom platforms. We hope to provide a consistent user experience (subject to certain limitations) across devices, regardless of input tools.

If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions on web accessibility issues relating to our website or mobile apps, please contact us at adarequest@uworld.com.
